

Internal review KWF grant applications 2024

From 2016 onwards KWF has changed the funding framework. KWF has the ambition to bring more results from scientific research into practical applications for patients and the general population. Within the Program Research & Implementation, KWF is funding research with more focus on the entire development cycle; in other words, from fundamental idea to implementing practical applications for (potential) patients and caregivers.

In agreement with the existing policy, the research board and the Radboudumc Centre for Oncology have decided to continue with the mandatory internal review procedure for KWF grant applications. The internal review of KWF project proposals is meant to improve the quality of the proposals and, thereby, to raise the chance of being awarded. The internal review procedure is in place for all types of projects.

The internal KWF committee consists of dr. Paul Span (chair), prof. dr. A. Geurts van Kessel, prof. dr. Joop Jansen, prof. dr. Robert Takes, dr. Julia van Tol, dr. Laurien Buffart, dr. Iris Walraven, dr. Marieke de Laat, dr. Harm Westorp, dr. Kalijn Bol and dr. Francesco Ciompi. The scientific secretary of the committee is dr. Kasia Engbers.

The adherence to the following time schedule is of crucial importance. Because of the tight time schedule any project application received after the internal deadlines will not be processed, but automatically postponed to the next round. To value the work of internal reviewers, any clearly incomplete project applications will be postponed as well.

The upcoming KWF submission deadlines in 2024 are:

- 7 May at 12.00h for project proposals in the research phases Basic research and Credentialing.
- July/August for project proposals in the research phases Creation of modality, Preclinical research, Clinical research and Implementation research.

*TBA

Submission takes place through Grant Management System (KWF-GMS; does not work in Explorer, choose another browser like Google Chrome!). Be aware, you need to upload your profile ahead, the system performs the "Eligibility Quiz" to advise the project proposal types you may apply for.
